A Self-publishing community

The Community writes The Mead; it contains a range of stories, news, listings and notices contributed by Southmead Residents, Volunteers and Workers.

If you run a group or volunteer/work for an organisation please encourage your contacts to contribute items. Each item requires a photo sent to us unedited and at best resolution.

#Fourteen

Our grant helped us to work towards sustainability in 2017-2018; please help us to continue this work with a donation. Thank you

Paper distribution

We currently print 2000 copies and distribute to main centres including GP surgeries, community centres, shops, cafes, churches, sheltered housing, and Fonthill and Badock's Wood schools (where copies go in to every pupil's book-bag).

Copies go in to letter-boxes in a growing list of homes in streets where residents have volunteered to deliver.

We will print more editions as this demand increases.

SENDING YOUR ITEM

- go to www.themead.org.uk & register
- follow the instructions to add your piece
- We will share it digitally and also, if relevant, add it to our printing wish list for the next issue. Please check the website for printing deadlines.
